Do they take care of the books and resources? Do they turn the pages? How do they respond to sensory aspects of stories and rhymes? Do they respond to puppets? Can they make a choice between two books? Can they look at/point to named pictures of familiar objects/people? Which books do they respond best to? Can they turn the pages? Can they describe what they like? Can they re-tell a familiar tale in their own words?
			Effective Practice
		Adults to introduce vocabulary (use of words, symbols and signs) eg- Book, page comic, picture, puppet, rhyme, Story, information, autor, title, blurb, Character names in stories Settings e.g. castle, farm, park, school. Word, sentence, sound. Model reading and share books with children Adults to ask simple questions to extend learning e.g- Do you like this book? Which is your favourite story? Can you find.....? Can you turn the page? Which story puppet do you like best? Can you find the word that rhymes with...? What do you think will happen next? How do you know....? Can you describe the characters/setting?	Open shelves and storage boxes, bean bags and large cushions, soft toys and puppets. Wide range of books - picture, fiction and rhyme, sound books, lift the flap books, non fiction, multicultural/different needs, sensory, comics and catalogues, big books, home made/photo books, books linked to themes or topics of interest, dual language books, instruction leaflets, recipe cards/books, Atlas, road/street maps. Display relating to current interests/themes, children's favourites books. Posters, pictures and postcards, story or rhyme sacks or boxes. Objects and games to support phonological awareness.
Intended Experiences	Characteristics of Effective Learning
Discover how to handle books carefully. Hold books the correct way up and turn pages one at a time. Enjoy looking at pictures Opportunities to use different voices to tell stories Talk about, how characters from stories feel. Have some favourite stories, rhymes and poems. Developing listening skills. To use stories they hear in their play. Begin to be aware of the way stories are structured. Suggest how the story might begin/end. Show interest in illustrations and print in books and their environment. Understand that print carries meaning and is a means of communication.	Unique Child Playing and Exploring (engagement) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pretending objects are things from their experience Representing their experiences in play Taking a role in their play Acting out experiences with other people Initiating activities Active Learning (motivation) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maintaining focus on their activity for a period of time Showing high levels of energy, fascination Not easily distracted Paying attention to details 	Positive Relationships Playing and Exploring (engagement) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Play with children. Encourage them to explore, and show your own interest in discovering new things. Join in play sensitively, fitting in with children's ideas. Model pretending an object is something else and help develop roles and stories. Pay attention to how children engage in activities – the challenges faced, the effort, thought, learning and enjoyment. Talk more about the process than products. Active Learning (motivation) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stimulate children's interest through shared attention, and calm over-stimulated children.
